

July 10, 2006

SERVICES

Fortress Global Investigations: William Hackenson, 55, joined as vice president of security, a newly created position. He had been head of White House security and CIA inspector for the U.S. Secret Service.