

On the Move

Rosanne Joset

June 6, 2005

LAW

John C. Abili has joined the law firm Goldberg & Connolly in Rockville Centre as an associate in the construction practice group. Previously, Abili was an associate with Treacy, Schaffel, Moore & Mueller based in New Jersey, focusing his practice on construction law and commercial litigation.

HEALTH CARE

Nassau Health Care Corp. in East Meadow has announced the appointment of Julie Mirkin of Cedarhurst to the position of senior vice president for patient care services. Mirkin will assume her duties as the chief nursing officer and will also be responsible for nursing and professional ancillary services, and for setting nursing policy and standards, recruitment and retention throughout Nassau Health Care Corp.

STAFFING

Marie E. O'Mara of Valley Stream has joined the staffing firm of CTI in Hauppauge. O'Mara will act as vice president of sales and marketing for the Hauppauge and Manhattan offices. She will also oversee the opening of the firm's new Nassau office.

REAL ESTATE

Alan L. Berger of Huntington has been appointed by the National Association of Realtors to the position of vice chair of the Certified International Property Specialist Advisory Group, a worldwide referral network of global real estate practitioners with experience working with international clients. Berger is a real estate broker with Breslin Realty Inc. in Garden City.

Elida Jacobsen Justo has been named director of Prudential Douglas Elliman Development Marketing Group, Manhattan. She will manage several of the company's on-site sales centers. Justo previously served as director of sales and marketing at Related Residential Sales LLC in Manhattan.

INVESTIGATIONS

Fortress Global Investigations in Great Neck has appointed Mark Bunim of Great Neck, an attorney, as vice president of risk management. Bunim will manage the firm's risk mitigation and management services division. Before joining Fortress, he served for three years as partner and co-leader of the insurance and risk management group for Bryan

Cave, a law firm in Manhattan.

EDUCATION

John J. Regazzi of Garden City has been appointed dean of the College of Information and Computer Science at C.W. Post Campus of Long Island University. Regazzi is the retired chief executive of Elsevier Inc., the U.S. division of Elsevier, an international publisher. He will oversee programs at four campuses: Brookville, Brentwood, Westchester and Manhattan.

SEND ANNOUNCEMENTS for People on the Move, along with color photos, and for nonprofit events at least three weeks in advance to Rosanne Joset, Newsday Business Desk, 235 Pinelawn Rd., Melville, NY 11747-4250, or fax them to 631-843-5459, or e-mail to rosanne.joset@newsday.com. Because of the volume of submissions, Newsday cannot print all notices. Photos cannot be returned.

Copyright 2005 Newsday Inc.